

YOU ARE INVITED TO ATTEND:

Talks and discussions on Brexit - its implications, the political landscape and the future of construction, property and Cornwall.

DATE: 19th September 2019
TIME: 8:00am for breakfast and networking with talks starting at 9:00am
VENUE: The Great Hall, Alverton Hotel, Truro.
COST: This is a free event (breakfast rolls, pastries and refreshments will be provided).

Attendees should preregister by emailing info@tacpp.co.uk by 28th August, although demand is likely to be high and this will be filled on a first-come-first-served basis.

THIS EVENT IS BEING KINDLY SPONSORED BY GROUNDSURE.

Speakers:

Allan Wilén,
Economics Director
Glenigan

Allan has thirty years of experience analysing and forecasting the UK construction industry. Allan heads Glenigan's market intelligence service, providing clients with regular on-line comment and analysis on the construction industry, including sector and regional forecasts. In addition, Allan undertakes custom research and analysis for customers, including leading contractors, product manufacturers and government.

Michael Clarke
Managing Director
DeHavilland

Michael Clarke is the Managing Director of DeHavilland the Political Insights business of Ascential Plc. Michael has worked in politics and public affairs for the last decade, prior to this he was at the United Nations and worked on a number of academic research projects. Michael is a graduate of Queens University, Belfast.